PRESS STATEMENT

APPRECIATION FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF DR. JOHNSON PANDID KWESI ASIAMAH AS GOVERNOR OF THE BANK OF GHANA BY THE PRESIDENT JOHN DRAMANI MAHAMA

Your Excellency,

The Chiefs and people of the Akpini Traditional Area extend our heartfelt gratitude to you for the appointment of our illustrious son, Dr. Johnson Pandid Kwesi Asiamah, as the Governor of the Bank of Ghana.

This distinguished appointment is a testament to his unwavering dedication, competence, and vast experience in the financial sector, and we are profoundly grateful that you have recognized his abilities by entrusting him with this critical role.

Your Excellency, this appointment brings immense pride and joy to the people of the Akpini Traditional Area, as it demonstrates your commitment to recognizing and harnessing the talents of capable individuals for the advancement of our beloved nation.

Dr. Asiamah's wealth of expertise and dedication to national service assure us that he will execute his mandate with excellence, integrity, and an unwavering commitment to Ghana's economic stability and growth.

We, the people of Kpando, stand firmly behind your government and pledge our full support to Dr. Asiamah in his new role. We are confident that under his leadership, the Bank of Ghana will continue to foster sound monetary policies that will enhance economic development and improve the livelihoods of all Ghanaians.

Once again, we express our sincere appreciation, assure you of our continued prayers, and support for your leadership and government. May the Almighty bless you abundantly as you continue to serve the nation.

Signed:

Mr. Anthony Akwensie
